VARIETY BILL
AT PANTAGESFive Sterling Vaudeville Acts
and Famous Georgia
Minstrels

When Chief Booking Agent Miles of the Pantages circuit was arranging the vaudeville show for next week, starting Wednesday afternoon he selected two national headline acts. First Week the Book with the Harmonica, and the Myron Pearl Co. in "Dance Echoes" surrounded these featured numbers with three happy-go-lucky acts and decided that he had accomplished a good day's work. And this same bill has been winning golden opinions in Winnipeg, Regina and Saskatoon, which cities precede Edmonton on the Pantages circuit.

Now along comes Alexander Pantages, the mogul of the circuit, bearing the same bill. In the course of a telegram to Manager Pemberton, who informed him that not only will the vaudeville bill play Edmonton next week but the Pantages Georgia Minstrels will be an added feature on the same night, Miles was over a case of two shows for the same night of admission this is felt to be the minimum have been appearing as a road show in Edmonton, receiving as much as two dollars the best seats. Local vaudeville prices received for the double-barrelled act.

travels at the local vaudeville theatre.

The Georgia Minstrels, numbering thirty talented performers, stand for the very best minstrelsy, and will play Edmonton, with an entirely new production made up of new songs, new dances and new comedy. The songs, dances and comedy of the group south are put on in this offering.

First Week is no stranger to Edmonton audiences, and has never failed to stop the show. He portrays the country boy, who with his harmonica and his whimsical manner

'Newsy' Lalonde Draws Suspension For One Game Only

Calgary Thrilled
Over Victory Of
'Richardson's Pets'

Famous Rejuvenated Tigers 'Avenge' Their Defeat Here New Year's Day by Defeating Crippled Eskimos 4 to 0—Even Calgary at Last Admits Keats and McCormick Can Play

CALGARY, Jan. 4.—In one of the most thrilling exhibitions of modern hockey, from a skating and goal-keeping viewpoint, Calgary Tigers avenged the defeat that Edmonton handed them in the capital city on New Year's Day by administering a 4-to-0 trouncing to the Eskimos at the arena tonight, before 4,087 enthusiasts, the second largest crowd that has jammed into the building this winter.

While the Tigers turned the trick, considerable cream was taken off the triumph, in view of the fact that the visitors had the services of but seven players, as Spunk Sparrow is serving a two-game suspension handed out by E. L. Richardson, president of the Western Canada league, and Morrison and Sheppard are confined to an Edmonton hospital suffering from throat trouble.

Being under this great handicap, the Eskimos put up a creditable performance, and while they were beaten, they never stopped exhibiting their skill. Keats and McCormick, who turned in rare exhibitions of the winter game, were the stars of the night. A combination rush by Dutton and Oliver gave the Eskimos early lead. Wilson and Dutton teamed well for the second Calgary goal, while Wilson scored the third. With such a commanding lead, the Eskimos were not so much as to let the defense and it was not until the first period that they noted their fourth goal, Oliver scoring on Dutton's pass.

Play was close and fast throughout and well handled by Dutton and Oliver. The first period ended with the score of 1 to 1, while the second period followed on this by scoring at 12:45. With six minutes to go and a score of 4 to 2 in favor of the Eskimos, the game was over. The Eskimos were more divided, by the pack driving him over the goal where three goals were scored.

With this handicap the Edmonton team, paired with one more goal, the Eskimos were more divided, by the pack driving him over the goal where three goals were scored.

Newsy Lalonde Let Down
With a Suspension From
But a Single Encounter

CALGARY, Jan. 4.—When the Saskatoon Crescents skate on the ice at Edmonton tomorrow night for their game with the Eskimos they will be without Newsy Lalonde, their captain and centre ice star.

The Saskatoon playing manager has been suspended for one game by E. L. Richardson, president of the Western Canada league, for undue rough play during the game against Regina Capitals at Saskatoon on New Year's day, when Goalkeeper McCusker was put out of commission three times.

Esks and Crescents Play
Tonight; Esks Leave For Coast Immediately After

Shells Will Be Without Lalonde, But Have Heavy Advantage In Sub—Jimmy Gardner Will Referee

The Eskimos make their final appearance on local ice before taking their first swing around Frank Patrick's loop when they cross sticks with the Saskatoon Crescents at the arena tonight. This will also mark the first appearance here for the season of Newsy Lalonde's gang of league leaders.

Despite the fact that Calgary took the long end of the score at the game at Calgary, the Eskimos are not downhearted. The victory under the circumstances was anything but creditable to the Tigers, and the fact that the Esks went through their scheduled engagement without a whimper has won them many friends.

The Eskimos today are greater in their lowly league position than they ever were at the top of the league. The events of the past few days have made their old friends more faithful than ever, and many new ones have been made.

The Eskimos have a tough assignment ahead of them. Even though the Crescents will be minus Newsy Lalonde, his absence will not weaken their attack. They have a tremendous roster and a player minor league and there makes a difference to them.

All to all, the Eskimos will be jammed to capacity to see the Esks. With Edmonton's local popularity standing by the Eskimos in spite of all, and with the shells at the top of the league, interest is bound to be intense.

There's no telling how the match will end. All to all, the Eskimos will be jammed to capacity to see the Esks. With Edmonton's local popularity standing by the Eskimos in spite of all, and with the shells at the top of the league, interest is bound to be intense.

NEW OFFICIALS
BREAKING IN FOR THE N.H.L.

Novel Scheme Adopted to Overcome Referee Shortage

MONTREAL, Jan. 4.—As a means of "breaking in" two officials new to National Hockey League, the double refereeing system will be in force tomorrow night at both the scheduled games.

Mr. Jerry Lafane, who is to referee in the Hamilton-Calgary game, will be assisted by Col. Roy Spittal, who has been living in Winnipeg but lately moved to Montreal.

In Ottawa, Art Ross will be assisted by Mr. Ernest Brown. There is something of a referee shortage in the National Hockey League and President Calder is taking this method of breaking in new officials.

PORTAGE BEATEN
PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, Man. Jan. 4.—The Portage Varsity hockey team clinched out of the cellar position in the Western division of the Manitoba Amateur League tonight here by their defeated Portage Varsity 2 to 1. It was a flashy exhibition throughout and was featured by hard checking.

Competition For English
Association Football Cup
Commences Jan. 12th

Bolton Wanderers, Present Holders, Will Battle Hard to Retain Honors—Yearly Battles for Blue Riband of Footer Take

LONDON, Jan. 4.—(By Cable Press.)—January 12 inaugurates the commencement of the annual tournaments for the coveted British Association football cup, the trophy which represents to its winners nothing less than the laurels bestowed on triumphant contestants of the ancient Olympiads. For over half a century the football cup has been the most coveted of trophies, and football have taken precedence in public interest over all other sporting activities for the period in which the engagements are fought out, and this is true not only of England but of all countries where the game is popular. It is a fact that in almost all countries throughout Anglo-Saxon countries and the increasing popularity of football among peoples who are not Anglo-Saxon serve to make these annual contests features of world-wide interest.

to be as regular as the seasons themselves. The weather is not so fickle as it is in the lands of his grudge, and the people are not so quarrelsome as the Christians of his Kingdom become professional. different, confident Aberdeen, a man who has been in the Hibernian ranks since 1906. The Hibernian manager has not been in England during the season, but he has been in Scotland rather naïvely to many of his lesser players. But on fitness of men he is singularly absent from those concerns the club and manager in the new year.

Cardiff city, the league leaders, have been in the first division since 1906. The Welshmen came this year, but they have been in the first division since 1906. Yet there is a broader field of dilemmas and choices in American education. As a correspondent of the Christian Monitor, Mr. Augustus H. Wood, has provided us with a study of the search for wisdom when it comes to the question of sex education. In his view, the nation's public schools will be happily satisfied to leave to parents the responsibility of determining the moral, emotional and intellectual requirements that are demanded. Sex education, as he defines it, is not so much an addition, as a result of the child's growth, as a separate subject. He is particularly concerned with the question of appropriate remarks about sex education, as there is no doubt that the parents of the future will be sharing yet again the

ENOUGH FOR PINKERTON TO SAY "GET THAT BACK"

Recovered Lillian Russell's Valuable
Furn and Linen—All Except
Pink Suit Nightdress

IT HERE is an old experienced saying that if a man sits on the porch of Sheppard's Hotel, Calm, Egypt, even a man or woman he knows will pass by in the course of the afternoon. William Allen Pinkerton, one of the most remarkable detectives America has produced, who died the other day, seventy-seven years old, did not have to go to the land of the Pharaohs. Wherever was "Uncle Billy," as he was affectionately called, men and women passed before him, and, righteous or wrong, he knew them.

He knew more men and women probably than any man in America. Whether he sat in the lobby of a hotel in Kanak, New York, Shelby, Chicago or Paris, he knew them all, good or bad. Aristocratic and influential men were glad to know him, for he was an amiable and most entertaining character.

So William A. Pinkerton died a millionaire, thanks to the kindly advice of his wealthy friends, who loved him and to the business astuteness of the father, Allen Pinkerton, his son, a great detective.

"Uncle Billy" was the members of the theatrical profession better than their own managers knew them. They loved him. He was ever ready to protect them against wolves. If by bad luck, they were stranded, he floated them with funds.

Like everybody else, he admired Lillian Russell. She was in Cleveland, playing an engagement and stopping at the old Hollenden House. One afternoon, while she was at the theatre, a thief broke into the hotel suite she occupied and stole her most valuable belongings, besides her wardrobe. Lillian Russell, in her indignation, sent Pinkerton to Chicago by long distance phone. He got in touch with his Cleveland office; there is not a big city on earth where his agency is not represented.

His Cleveland operators got busy, reported to their principal, and Pinkerton, as always putting

COOLIDGE SEES THE DOG BEFORE HE EATS SAUSAGE

Registration of Humorous Protest Against Homely Hah—"It's All Right, Fellows; Let's Go Ahead"

WHEN Calvin Coolidge went to Amherst College he ate at a boarding house which was inexpensive but well conducted, says Edward Everett Whiting, in a biography just published.

There is a story of this boarding house which is trivial, but may properly be quoted here simply because it emphasizes what right to be emphasized frequently—that is, that at that time he was a serious-minded boy.

On the morning of the story, the piece of resistance breakfast was being served. Coolidge turned in his napkin, seized his knife and fork, and endeavored to eat. He was stopped by the waiter who called him to the door.

"Maria!" he called. Maria was the waitress. Maria entered from the kitchen.

"Maria," asked Calvin, "where is the dog?" "In the kitchen," said the waitress.

Maria related to the dog, who came in through the kitchen door. He was a large, whole-some-looking dog. He was sitting on the edge of the room again. Calvin resumed his grasp on the fork and began operations on the dish in front of him, saying in a voice of cheer: "It's all right, fellows, let's go ahead."

BYING BACK TO EARTH AFTER DAZED FLIGHT

Tells What May Happen to Governor-General Who Quotes Epictetus—Unaware to a Lady

THE duties of his office keep Lord Blyth, the Governor-General of Canada, in the neighborhood of St. Helena. Most of the time his trips beyond the boundaries of the province of Ontario are infrequent and he usually returns to his home in the city.

WITH THE CAMERA MAN ON THE DAILY ROUNDS

AMERICA'S GREATEST LINER GROUNDED!

Helplessly stuck in the mud off St. George, Staten Island, in New York harbor, the giant liner Leviathan of the U. S. Lines was held prisoner for about six hours. Radio had been sent from the ship after it left England to the effect it was hoped 20 minutes would be clipped from the westward trip record. Within sight of its goal, it grounded! Passengers were taken from the vessel by a ferry boat (shown inset), while tug swarmed about trying their best to release the big boat.

SLEEPING!

Here is Prince George Matchell, husband of Princess Matchell, who will play in "The Minstrel." He came to New York aboard the Leviathan.

SPLendor

Recent dispatches from Luxor, Egypt, describe the shrine of Tutankhamen as "overwhelming" in its magnificence. Howard, in charge of excavations, is shown here at the crowning board, where he carefully records all objects before they are removed from the tomb.

"NOT INFALLIBLE"

John D. Rockefeller has deserted his northern home and now is in sunny Florida, at Ormond Beach. He has given a dime to about everyone in town, and here he is shown presenting one to Mrs. Charles F. Langner, of New York City. They are intended as keepakes from the oil king.

FIVE-GENERATION FAMILY

Dr. John Rosch Stratton, of Calvary Baptist church, New York City (above), last a debate to Rev. Chas. F. Butler, of the Unitarian church, New York (below), on the question: "Resolved that the Bible is the infallible Word of God." Dr. Stratton upheld the affirmative and the "opponent."

"ARTISTICALLY LOVELY"

Artists in Chicago held their annual hop and awarded prizes to the most beautiful women present. Photo is of Miss Edith Lensfellow, who was second in the contest.

ALLEY CAT

CHINESE

Miss Grace Zia, of Shanghai, a student at Wellesley college, Mass., has been chosen as a delegate to attend a convention of church workers soon to be held in Indianapolis to discuss religious and social problems.

IT'S SURE SOME ROCK!

H. Nathan of San Francisco has a diamond worth $100,000. But he doesn't know what to do with it. Just now he's allowing Evelyn Forest to wear it while she's having her picture taken. The costly gem, set with 14 smaller stones worth $1,000, originally was given as a decoration to a Persian military officer. Nathan bought it recently.

BREAD

Emergency bread from Italy, if you were to judge by this photo, just arrived from Europe. It shows a scene in Berlin when the "bread man" came abroad.

CONQUERING THE SNOW KING

In Salt Lake City they use hot water to flush the streets when snow impedes progress. Heating the water doesn't melt the city's coat, either, since it's tipped from natural springs at 115 degrees Fahrenheit. Photo shows a municipal sprinkler pulling the faucet or act on a hose of the watery stuff.

ONLY ONE

PULL FOR THE SHORE

Miss Marguerite Windholes is a stickler for her daily doses. Here she is pulling away at a rowing machine in the Omaha, Neb., Athletic club in search of health but not beauty, because she has that already. No, those are not her feet but a part of the machine you see in the foreground.

POOR YORICK!

The cigar-store wooden Indian, so familiar to our tourists, is back again—and right in New York City! On 42nd street, close to the White Light District, the statue "Indian" (a smaller statue worth $1,000, originally was given as a decoration to a Persian military officer. Nathan bought it recently.) It collected a crowd, too.

THEY START YOUNG

Once in Soviet Russia they begin training soldiers early in life. Look at these youngsters, mere boys. They are put through the same rigorous course of training as older soldiers. Photo made near Charkov during a demonstration in which 100,000 soldiers participated.

SHE'S A SURE WINNER

Bellevue, Miss., has just been put on the map as a town knowing good justice. Nora Florence, 18, of that community, won the national prize for excellence in civility. Judge her at a contest held recently in Chicago.

Famed Woman Astrologist Forecasts 1924 as Eventful Year

Fighting Parson Makes Town Cleanup Community Affair in Law Crusade

Edmonton, Jan. 2.—The church militant, exemplified in the Rev. Mr. Courrier, certainly has raised a stir in this town.

The town had been dissatisfied but before a resolution was passed, the Rev. Mr. Courrier, who is a member of the church, was elected to the position of town clerk.
